President's Message

The outstanding contributions of Sarah Wallerstein and Marjorie Wolfe — along with the help of many others — created an outstanding Winter Gala at the French Embassy last month. Many thanks to La Maison Francaise (Roland Celette), Georgetown University Hospital (Regina Wood) and Georgetown University (Linda Greenan) for continuing to support Burleith. (For more on the Winter Gala, see page 3.)

A few weeks ago, I had the privilege of sitting down with GU's president Jack DeGioia, Dean of Students Todd Olson, GU representatives from Student Affairs and External Relations, and community leaders from Georgetown and the Advisory Neighborhood Council. The meeting was groundbreaking in that community leaders met directly with officials at GU who can change policy. We agreed to meet monthly with core university leaders and have frank discussions on how we can improve relationships between the school and the surrounding communities.

You may have seen GU flyers posted around Burleith, stating that noise violations can lead to a $300 fine and/or 10 days in prison. The BCA applauds GU's continuing efforts to work with us to curb noise issues. Receiving a noise violation from MPD (61D) can lead to an arrest. The arrest will stay on one's record and so would a subsequent conviction. Unfortunately this sort of thing could hamper one's ability in the employment arena.

At the BCA's last board meeting, we discussed meeting with representatives from the citizens associations of Hillandale, Glover Park, The Cloisters and Georgetown. We will seek ways to work together in areas we have common ground. Members of the Hillandale board will attend our April board meeting.

Joseph Martin, Ward 2's outreach-and-services specialist, suggested that we assemble a petition that alerts District officials to our community needs. (I can think of a few things: the Whitehaven Parkway sidewalk, various streets repairs, lamp repairs. Please email or write me to let me know what you think needs to be addressed. Your ideas will be summarized and submitted.

Spring is only a few weeks away. It's time to start thinking about spring cleanups, gardening, cherry blossoms ... Burleith is so lovely in the spring!

See you around the neighborhood!

Marjorie Wolfe: Burleith's Volunteer Coordinator

Marjorie moved to Burleith from Morgantown, West Virginia, in 1971. Her interest in photography led her to a job working for Kodak. Bored with her job, she was recommended for a job with Knoll International, a contemporary furniture manufacturer. This move changed her life forever. She was introduced to the world of architecture and design and, through her job, she had many opportunities to travel. Marjorie became very passionate about architecture, art and design, and was fascinated to meet people who were creating and designing. Having spent two years in Paris as a young girl, Marjorie wanted to relive this experience and began to travel around the world. Her favorite countries to visit are France, Italy, Iceland, Kenya, and India (Kashmir and Ladakh). She hopes to continue to visit the peoples of the world, but also to continue to enjoy the people of this beloved Burleith Community.

As well as coordinating volunteer activities in Burleith, Marjorie organizes the annual Flea Market, and arranges for the distribution of The Burleith Bell each month. If you are interested in volunteering in Burleith please contact Marjorie at mapearl@verizon.net.

Burleith's Winter Gala

The Masquerade Mardi Gras would not have been possible without our volunteers — Sarah Wallerstein for making the whole event happen; Lenore Rubino for everything that she does for every event; Marguerite Cunningham; Joe Conway, Melanie Gisler and Kay Langenbacher for assisting with the Raffle; Jennifer Tye of Taste DC and her crew for the great food; Carrie Dorean of Dorean Photography for the terrific photos; Ed Solomon for arranging the wine provision; Danny Meyer and his Band for the great music; Davis Kennedy (Le Diable) and Linda Greenan for judging “best mask”; Sorrell Caplan and Quinn Jennings for manning the registration table; Sue Hamilton, Sue Cook, Dean Beasom and Beatrice Park for helping with raffle ticket sales and at the registration table; Ben Wallerstein, May Vaughan, Dwane Starlin, Marilyn Bennett, Pam Jennings, Andre Dobbins, Mills Wallace, Erik Warga, Mark Gisler, and Eric and Kay (Super Woman) Langenbacher for set-up and tear-down. Also the Bell Delivery Team - Juliana Hanle, Keenan Monroe, Amaya Bravo, Marguerite and Lucie Warga, and Adam and Max Langenbacher for delivering the flyers.

I sincerely hope that I have not missed any of the volunteers that made it all happen and if so, thank you. Without the gracious help of all the residents of our “Village in the City” we would not be able to produce so much fun.

Thanks to ALL!!

Hexagon 2008: “Stars And Gripes Forever”

Hexagon, Washington’s only original, political, satirical musical comedy revue, is back for its 53rd annual rendition of comedic and musical satire at Duke Ellington Theater. From Feb 27th through March 16th, shows will be performed each Wednesday through Saturday at 8:00 p.m., with Sunday afternoon matinees at 2:30 p.m. Hexagon volunteers will again entertain audiences with their wry wit and captivating satire aimed at all the Washington players.

Media celebrities like local NBC 4 meteorologist Bob Ryan, movie critic Arch Campbell, radio DJs Loo Katz, Chilli Amar, Lori Brooks and WTOP Anchors Shawn Anderson, Hillary Howard and Bob Kur will provide quick one liners and brief comedic respits as “weekend update” newsreaders—similar to the comedy segment on “Saturday Night Live”. Wednesday, March 5, will be GPA night, and Billy Martin and Ed Solomon of the Georgetown Business and Professional Association will be newsbreak guests.

Hexagon’s unique brand of political humor has graced the stage at Duke Ellington School of the Arts for over twenty years and has raised over $3 million dollars for eligible local charities like The DC Metro Hospices, DC Habitat for Humanity, Food and Friends, Turning the Page, Rebuilding Together, Washington Home for victims of Alzheimers, and Duke Ellington Project. This year’s beneficiary is Duke Ellington School of the Arts.

This year, two prominent businesses bring much-needed sponsorship to Hexagon - defense contractor Lockheed Martin of Bethesda, and Bonneville Communications of Salt Lake City, parent company of WTOP News Radio, 103.5 FM. The Board of Directors and members of Hexagon wish to express their deepest gratitude to both firms for their outstanding support and sponsorship of the Hexagon shows and associated activities.

For more information, please contact Gene Tighe, at 703-966-1210, eftighe@verizon.net or prvp@hexagon.org. Further information is available at www.hexagon.org or the Man About Town page at www.wtopnews.com or at 103.5 FM.

Westend Bistro

By Corinna Lothar

There's a new restaurant in the Ritz Carlton at 23rd and M Streets. Westend Bistro by Eric Ripert is lively, buzzing with talk and the clink of wine glasses. It's expensive, but the food is terrific.

Eric Ripert is a French-born New Yorker. He worked with Jean Louis Palladin at the Watergate Hotel before moving to New York where he is chef and part-owner of the famed Le Bernardin restaurant.

Appetizers are the classics: oysters, clams, mussels in white wine with chorizo, fried calamari, and pork pate en croute (a mini meat pie). Less classic but equally fine are grilled shrimp with a quinoa salad, a crab cake, and tuna carpaccio. The carpaccio is memorable: a plate of beautiful fresh, thin sliced, rose colored tuna, enlivened with olive oil and fresh lemon juice, and sprinkled with finely chopped chives and shallots.

A main course plate of skate, served in brown butter with capers adding a touch of tartness, is perfect. On the side are buttery braised Belgian endives.

If the onion soup is traditionally the test of a French bistro, the classic burger, plain or with a sharp cheese, is the test of the American counterpart, and this classic burger is a high quality sandwich to rival any burger in town. Diners are offered a choice of mixed green salad or good French fries. The burger is on the pricey side ($18 at dinner; $16 at lunch), but it's the real deal.

With the exception of a splendid roast whole chicken for two, all the meat dishes are of beef: grilled flat iron steak, beef tenderloin, tagliatelle Bolognese and braised veal cheeks, all prepared with care.

Fish choices are more varied. Vegetarian choices are limited to salads and side dishes, such as a casserole of mixed vegetables, French fries, mashed potatoes or ratatouille for two. Desserts are up to the high standard of appetizers and main courses.

Service is efficient, helpful, friendly and professional. Westend has brought back house wines by the carafe at reasonable prices.

Westend Bistro

1150 22nd Street NW, 202/835-0500.

Hours: Dinner Sunday to Thursday 5:30 to 10 p.m., Friday and Saturday 5:30 to 11 p.m. Lunch Monday to Friday 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Prices: Lunch starters, salads, sandwiches $7 to $18, main courses $18 to $24; dinner starters $9 to $16; main courses $18 to $34; desserts $9.

Advisory Neighborhood Commission News

At its February General Meeting, the Advisory Neighborhood Commission was given a presentation on the construction status at the Hardy Middle School. Sigal Construction, the new contractor, is committed to completing the project in time for the 2008/2009 school year. To accomplish this goal, the contractor is requesting that their permit allow work to start earlier in the morning and later in the evening. In addition, weekend hours will be extended. The ANC will work closely with the project manager and the District of Columbia Public Schools to mitigate the impact to the neighbors in close proximity to the project. Work hours to be confirmed. The ANC was informed on Friday February 22, that the property owner at 1700 Wisconsin Avenue has withdrawn his Board of Zoning Application seeking variance relief to convert the existing office building to a Walgreen's Pharmacy. The building is located at the northwest corner of Wisconsin Avenue and R Street. There is every indication that the property will remain an office building and not retail. Neighbors had expressed concerns about parking, traffic and noise. A shortage of teacher parking has been an ongoing concern at Duke Ellington School of the Arts. The ANC is working with DC Councilmember Jack Evans's office and DC Schools to have the area at the west side of Duke Ellington facing 36th St. paved to allow for teacher parking. We hope to have this project completed before the 2008/2009 school year. For immediate parking relief, an agreement with Safeway has been implemented to allocate ten spaces for teacher parking during the Spring 2008 semester. Stoddert Elementary School News

We are having an exciting new year at Stoddert Elementary School. In February, students in grades 3-5 were invited to an evening at the Air & Space Museum, including a lecture and screening of an IMAX film. This event took place through our association with the Fillmore Arts Program. Both our first and second grade classes recently had the opportunity to visit the U.S. Capitol, including a special meeting with Eleanor Holmes Norton. Our librarian is currently planning a celebration for Dr. Seuss' birthday, and we look forward to seeing several Thing Ones and Thing Twos at school on March 3, 2008. Upper grade students recently participated in both geography and spelling bees, and we wish the winners good luck in the city wide competitions. We are looking forward to Le Big Chili, our annual PTA fundraising event, which is scheduled for April 27, 2008. Please contact co-directors Molly Evans or Terri Thompson at evans.cohen@gmail.com or Stoddertmom360@yahoo.com for more information. Finally, if you have little ones who will be elementary school age soon, please come by our Spring Open House on March 11, 2007 at 9:00 a.m. to see what Stoddert has to offer. For more Open House information, please email Liz Ludgin at lizludgin@yahoo.com. Be sure to check out Stoddert's website as well. It has been updated and contains lots of useful information. www.Stoddert.org.

Please Scoop your Pet's Poop - it's the law!

There are pooper-scooper laws in the District of Columbia. The law states that no person owning, keeping, or having custody of a dog in the District, except a seeing eye dog, shall allow dog waste to remain in any public place.

The District Department of the Environment wants the public to understand why it is so important to scoop your pet's poop:

- Properly disposing of pet waste helps to keep park grounds and sidewalks clean.
- Pet waste transmits disease.
- Pet waste is bad for the Potomac and Anacostia Rivers and the city's smaller neighborhood streams. Rain carries waste into storm drains and nearby streams, contaminating the water with harmful bacteria which make the water unhealthy to touch.
- Pet waste adds unwanted nutrients to local waterways causing algae blooms and poor water quality.
